CHORUS:

[We all have] gifts to give, making the whole world brighter
We have gifts to give, taking our spirits higher
When we give freely of our love, so much more love we receive
This is the wondrous pattern that we weave.

When you are in lack, speak with words of praise,

CHORUS:

gifts to give, making the whole world brighter
We have gifts to give, taking our spirits higher
When we give freely of our love, so much more love we receive
This is the wondrous pattern that we weave.

We have gifts to give, taking our spirits higher

This is the wondrous pattern that we weave.

CHORUS:

gifts to give, making the whole world brighter
We have gifts to give, taking our spirits higher
When we give freely of our love, so much more love we receive
This is the wondrous pattern that we weave.
